

NEIL RAMBALDI

Billboard charts' No. 4 hit session guitarist, and voted as a top-10 finalist by guitar legend Steve Vai in the 2001 Steve Vai Guitar Challenge, guitarist Neil Rambaldi has made quite a name for himself as both a solo recording artist in the styles of blues, rock fusion, blues rock, and instrumental / progressive rock, and as a session guitarist, touring guitarist, multi-instrumentalist, vocalist, songwriter, arranger, film and TV composer, and producer in many other styles spanning pop, Americana, soul, classical, Latin jazz, and more.

Currently based mainly out of both his native New Jersey / N.Y.C. area and L.A. (having initially built his career for a decade in N.Y.C. and later in L.A. for 12 years as his full-time residence), he also spends time touring on both the U.S. coasts and in the Southwest on guitar and vocals in both his solo format and three-piece live band. Neil is also formerly the guitarist for Lilian Garcia (Universal), and has collaborated with many "greats" including Kenny Simmons of The Commodores (Motown), Nuno Bettencourt of Extreme (A&M), Stu Hamm (credits: Satriani, Vai), and more. His music and songwriting are heavily inspired by his vast and somewhat nomadic life experiences, having especially soaked up both the U.S. Southwest and West Coast landscapes and energy, along with the vast opportunities in L.A. that have come to and continue to come to him for his musical talents.

On stage, both Neil's solo-electric and three-piece live band shows currently consist of mainly his blues rock and multifaceted rock fusion side of his catalog from both his upcoming third album Path of the Warrior and similar track selections from his album A Call to the Wild, while revealing his American roots music influences, including blues, soul, and jazz, plus his instrumental rock, progressive rock, and classical influences. For his longer shows, he also includes his own spin on some of his favorite classics among blues, blues rock, and soul music. ...His exceptional performances and musicianship always quickly become apparent at his live shows, and with his solo format (in addition to his guitar and vocals) Neil also shows his mastery of creating a live percussion soundscape with a loop pedal and tambourine at his feet. Whether it is a solo show or band show, they are not to be missed!

Critical acclaim and other praise for both Neil's latest released album A Call To The Wild and other work:

- "One of my favorite albums of the year. ...Terrific guitarist."
-Don Campau, KKUP 91.5 FM (Cupertino, CA, USA)
- "Rambaldi is a great guitar player that can shred with lightning speed, but his emphasis is more on the melody—not just on prowess. References can be made with great Blues Rock guitarists like Joe Bonamassa, Jeff Beck or Stevie Ray Vaughan, but his playing style is quite unique... He even sings (very well)... Highly recommended indeed."
-Marc Roy, ProGGnosis (USA)
- "Neil is an amazing guitarist."
-Nuno Bettencourt (Legendary guitarist for the band Extreme / Rihanna)
